SOVEREIGN Arts Foundation Student Prize

Hong Kong 2019 Judges's Prize Winner

(University Category)

Finalist of the Sovereign Art Foundation Students Prize

Yiu Tung Ni / Alumni 2018

During my first year in SCAD, I had multiple works from my foundation classes, which include realistic drawings. Before this summer, I submitted one of those drawings to join the Sovereign Art Foundation Students Prize competition. I never thought I would be lucky enough to be selected as one of the finalists, let alone win the Judges Prize in the university group. I was even more thrilled to learn that one of the judges wanted to purchase my drawing. Being appreciated is a huge encouragement to me.

After a year of foundation studies, as a student majoring in Illustration, I was excited to be able to finally take an Illustration class in my second year. This class had expanded my knowledge of the different fields of Illustration. Initially, I was only interested in children's book illustrations. Throughout this class, I learnt that there were so many more possibilities in terms of an illustrator's career, which made me eager to try different types of illustrations, such as the fields of packaging and editorial. I also gained a lot of information about the industry from my professor, who often shares her interesting experiences as an illustrator.

For the rest of the school year, I will be studying in the Atlanta campus. I have never studied abroad before and I cannot wait to be able to have a whole new experience there.

Yuen Lok Man / Alumni 2019

I'm Lucina Yuen, currently studying Biological Science in Imperial College London. The first two months have been hard – I am still trying to figure out how the university works, especially with the demanding workload and the sheer amount of content. Not to mention me joining way-too-many societies – Kendo, anime, environmental, gaming... Those are just a few from my list of clubs.

Some of you might be thinking about how I am able to manage my time, especially when coping with the sheer amount of workload in both school and life. To be honest, there is no absolute way – I have seen some course-mates putting up every single thing in their electronic timetable, and some just writing a checklist of what they need finish by that week. Personally, I am a mix of both – I always have a checklist on my table, but still filled my schedule books with club meetings. If I really would need to give a tip, it would be concentrating on what you are doing. When you are in the classroom (or lecture hall, for me), clear your mind and try to pay full attention for that 45 minutes. Or when you are in sports training, try your best in those one or two hours. This might seem painful at first (especially people are not used to putting their phone down), but you would end up getting the most out of that limited period of time.

I am sure that some of you might be thinking about studying abroad. If so, you might have thought of applying for a scholarship. You would be shocked by how many people quit applying solely because of the pile of documents you needed to fill in. Not so long ago, I was exhausted by the university interviews and was so close to giving up applying. Therefore, my fellow schoolmates, don't be scared by those pile of papers. For those who have applied for scholarship/universities, remember to be who you genuinely are. The interviewers would like an honest, flawed person rather than a perfect being. This is your time to shine, to show how your experience shaped you, but not imitating a person you don't know

It's a pleasure for me to share my experience in Imperial with my fellow students. Looking back, it has been a tough journey all along the way - Starting from choosing my subject, all the way to getting into university. Yet, A-School has been helping me all along the way, making my journey more memorable. I hope my words will assist your journey to university! Work hard and wish you good luck!

Having the courage to take the first step is overcoming the biggest obstacle there is in achieving your dream. After a trip to Cambridge at ten years old, I was captivated by the city. 8 years later, I arrived at Cambridge as a matriculated student. Studying with some of the most intelligent people from different countries kept my motivation to learn despite any hardships. It also inspired me to continue and pursue my dreams after university.

Now I'm working as an application engineer at Instron responsible for fatigue testing machines. It has been a fulfilling career start for me to know that what I'm doing is helping companies and research institutes in many industries such as biomedical, automotive S and aerospace to develop technologies and innovations that improve the safety of current designs. The journey to get here was long and sometimes discouraging, but the outcome has made it worthwhile.

關於我的大學生活：因實習的表現不佳被老師和前輩們苛刻地責備，因來不及完成功課而經常在半夜和朋友趕project，因考試課題艱深而經常有挫敗感……五年來跌跌撞撞地走過，中間流過不少眼淚，但到今天，仍然覺得值得。

在護理學的課程裡，最令人深刻難忘的，一定是到醫院實習。記得第一次踏足病房的我們，連跟病人打招呼也十分緊張。由於工作關乎病人的生命，即使是最簡單的護理，例如轉身換片量血壓，我們都必須小心翼翼，保持警覺，以觀察病人有否不適。而每位學生都是抱著助人的心去做每件事，力求完美，也十分在意自己的能力，因此精神上經常都感到很疲累。

其次是一堆讀不完的筆記。記得每到學期中，當作業死線和測驗全部都逼在眉睫，那幾天我感到十分無力。尤其是大學鼓勵自主學習，需要自己主動去發問，再找出答案，這個學習過程花費很多時間和精力。多次跟朋友申訴很想放棄學業，認為或許自己不夠聰明，但每次都因為朋友的鼓勵和陪伴撐過去了。

回想起來，其實也沒有什麼非讀大學不可的理由。要成為護士，也可以透過其他途徑去進修，而前途亦很康莊。只不過，學校提供除了培訓學生成為護士以外的體驗：參與不同的學會以發展和發掘自己的興趣；在學會上莊、學習為學會事務負上責任；一天中大部分時間都由自己安排，上課、上班、玩樂、自學等，全靠自己學會自律和規劃。而最最重要的，是預備自己進入社會。

我很贊同大學就像社會的縮影。偶爾間我也會在工作中遇到挫折，那麼就靠朋友的支持捱過去。間中工作苦悶，也藉自己培養的興趣幫自己調劑一下。下班後，要令自己的生活精彩，也一定要好好規劃，否則就只剩下工作，變得枯燥。

關心身邊的事物，管理好自己的事務，學習分辨是非，學習堅強，並拒絕依賴……慢慢地成長，這些才是在大學生活裡獲得的珍貴東西。

Internship in the Digital Domain

Fong Hoi Tung Elma/ Alumni 2015

I was a Visual Arts student in A-School and now I am majoring in Visual Effects and minoring in Concept Arts for Games at SCAD. I got my very first internship half a year ago so I went to Digital Domain in Beijing for the whole summer. I was completely frozen when I first got the email. I was so excited about the acceptance!

Digital Domain is one of the most important film post-production companies in the art and technology industry as they worked on many different famous movies and advertisements, such as Avengers, Beauty and the Beast, X-Men and Transformers. As I'm interested in working on film post-production, I decided to work in the Compositing and Matte Painting departments.

My internship training was under 4 Supervisors, using software called Nuke and Photoshop. For Compositing, I used shots from DD's previous production, 邪不壓正 Hidden Man (2018) and 狂怒沙暴 Project X-Traction (2019) for training; integrating live-action footage with 2D, Matte Paintings and CG elements; strengthening the Fundamental Compositing Skills, Rotoscoping, Colour Grading (2D & CG), Keying & Matte Extractions (Blue/Green Screen or without any screen). For Matte Painting, I created a matte painting in Photoshop and projected in Nuke (Camera Projection).

Apart from knowing the production pipeline and industry-standard, I also found out some fun facts of Digital Domain Beijing. On my first day at work, I found out there was a slide in the middle of the office! It is interesting to know the culture of this workplace, playing the slide and taking a nap will boost staffs' energy. Even though it was an unpaid internship, the company paid me with food! Digital Domain provides staff with lunch, dinner and unlimited coffee as they need to work for long hours every day. A good company will always feed you.

Hello everyone, I am your host of Campus TV, Jimmy Wong. And that's my most iconic role in A-School, the ex-chairperson of Campus TV.

I've been in love for 12 years, in love with A-School since grade 1. Throughout these years, I've experienced the best moments of my life. I've met friends, supportive teachers, learnt precious knowledge and most importantly, found my pathway to the bright future. HKBUAS is both a home and school to me. It has provided me with numerous resources in academics, personal development and extra-curricular activities.

In grade 7, I decided to join Campus TV. Through encouragement and support from my teachers, I developed an interest in this field and continued to actively learn and explore. When I was in grade 10, my direction was made very clear. This is my direction, this is my interest, this is my future.

We had to face the inevitable — public exams. It was certainly a stressful experience. Some tips that I would like to share about public exams are time and foundation. It's important to revise months in advance. Building up a solid knowledge foundation is also crucial or else it would be difficult to comprehend other chapters.

I'm currently studying Film and Television in a well-known university based in the US, SCAD. In this university, I'm able to pursue my interest and have in-depth learning of my field. Being in this amazing university allows me to unleash my true potential and flourish!

All of these wouldn't be possible without comprehensive support all these years. I would like to thank A-School for providing a friendly and encouraging environment for us. Thank you for giving me opportunities and letting us explore our own potentials. Thank you, for being my home, my everything.

English and Creative Writing BA (Hons)

I am Helen Sun, a Class of 2019 graduate currently studying at the University of Birmingham, in England. It is absolutely insane how much my life has changed within this past year -- a year ago, I was still enjoying the last of my high school life and had not even begun fretting about my DSE. But now, I am experiencing a new life in a foreign country, surrounding myself with new people and new opportunities.

A-School certainly contributed much in the aid of this journey. I was provided with an abundance of learning resources – well-developed facilities, overseas excursions, exchange programs. I never knew how lucky I was to have studied in A-School until I talked to my friends here who came from other secondary schools in Hong Kong. Many of the teachers were very keen on helping us prepare for our public exam – they devised unique exam strategies for our convenience, and compiled very concise summary notes for us to study.

The teachers were supportive not only academically, but also personally. Many of them shared their opinions whenever we were troubled about our future pathways, or even with interpersonal relationships. I remember on the day I received my HKDSE results, I ended up doing better than I had expected, and it seemed as if a door leading to a terrifyingly wide array of paths had been blown open suddenly – truthfully, I felt rather lost. Fortunately, different teachers gave their two cents on the path I should take; Mr. Ricky Chu in particular compared the pros and cons of studying abroad and staying local, thus aiding me in my decision making.

This is the story of how I declined my University of Hong Kong offer and headed abroad for a new life – but it is a story I never could have written without the nurture and support A-School has offered me. I will always be grateful for the years I spent in this institution.

在內地，除了藝術生可以藝考之外，沒有一間普通的高中可以有藝術方面的教育，這令我在課業上對比其他同學有莫大的優勢，沒有同學懂得如何寫一篇藝術鑑賞的文章，也沒有同學做過作品和展覽。香港教育制度和A-School給予我的是在科目上比其他同學更全面的知識和經歷，不只是視覺藝術，還有體育、個人發展等等，A-School對我在這些方面的教育都令我在內地拔尖的高考生中脫穎而出，我現在在校學生會、院學生會及各種社團等等都有擔任重要的職位，不得不感謝A-School對我的培育。

When I think about the happy memories of my secondary school life, I remember quite a lot. However, the best ones were not from the high scores I achieved in tests, nor from the times I hung out with my friends. They were from the time I spent in the sports team. When I was in the sports team, we lost more often than winning the games. However, I found so much joy in training with my teammates and competing with them side by side. Although there are so many activities I can join in the university, no other things can replace these memories.

As I wrote this piece of writing, it dawns on me that DSE is already less than six months away for G12 students. I remember when I was studying for the DSE, I did not seem to be improving at all however hard I practised on those exam questions. Instead, my scores even seem to fluctuate in some subjects. I felt very anxious at that time and I am sure some of you also do now. In the end, what I found out was this; a lot of things seem impossible until they are done. My results in the DSE far exceeded my expectations. Therefore, I hope if you are now worried about your DSE, believe in yourself. Believe that you can make a difference and make a breakthrough, because if I can do it, so can you.

A-School 12年。當中所得到的，確實是不一樣的經歷。

校園生活豐富非常，有不同的Leadership & Service Programme、也有不同的交流機會。除此之外，老師在課後時間也不計回報的用心回答學生的問題、有些更願意不辭勞苦地為我們補課。這一切一切都令到我感到有同路人一起齊上齊落，在難捱的奮鬥中得到一絲安慰。

而談到讀書，除了要感激老師的幫助外，同學們亦應找到合適自己努力的方法。在奮鬥的過程中，我明白到每個人都有不同的方法付出。一些人能身兼多職，在科學、運動、文學各方面都參與。一些人則專注於一件事。只要大家找到對的方法，失敗的機率也就大大減低。

我是2018年的畢業生黃仲祺，現在是香港科技大學土木工程學系的二年級學生。在學校裡，我認識了很多新朋友，有的來自同一個學系，有的不是。我習慣把課堂放在一起上，上完便會回到宿舍休息，做功課。

進入大學後我依然有打乒乓球，現在亦是校隊的一份子，每個星期練習兩天，當中也接觸了很多不同的人，令到自己的眼界拓寬了。在悠長的中學生涯中，我學到的學業知識在大學中固然有用，可是在中學中培養的社交能力也是不容忽視的。在大學中，會面對很多素未謀面的新面孔，相處方式也會有所不同。因此在中學裡與不同同學交流的經驗，在大學裡也能夠使用得到。

職業拳擊有別於一般體制下的競技項目，某程度上是比較商業化的，所以好多時候都要摸索自己不同的出路和機會，包括要自己尋找資金、訓練、比賽機會等等。職業拳擊這條路是難走的，而女子職業拳擊這條路就更加難走，因為女孩子的機會比較少，所以這10年來，我一直堅持希望找到自己的方向和機會。像是上年年底我到美國和墨西哥訓練和尋找比賽機會。今年年頭開始每天即日來回到深圳訓練。我踏上過香港會議展覽中心的大擂台，也走上過泰國街邊的竹棚擂台。我擊倒過對手，也被對手擊倒過。我贏過，也輸過。

由香港沒有職業拳擊，到開始發展這項運動；由大家不理解這項運動，到大家開始接受，甚至喜歡。不論是自己的道路，還是這個世界，都一直不停地改變。唯一不變是——我由始至終都非常熱愛拳擊運動。我也很希望能夠為香港爭取第一條女子亞洲金腰帶。帶著這份熱愛和願望，我會衝破一切困難，繼續努力！

The first semester in University ends out of my expectation. By out of my expectation instead of beyond my expectation means there were good things and bad things, or something I did not know it's good or bad.

I did not expect I would successfully be enrolled in the double degree program, and I did not expect I could not enter the final of my first case competition in university (being a semi-finalist isn't too bad). What I am trying to say is not to make too much expectation, instead, you should take more action. You cannot predict the results correctly, but you can change the result by changing the process through your effort.

Going through the first semester in HKU, I made lots of decisions. Each decision I made affects my future academic and career path. I chose the double degree program, so I gave up the chance of becoming the executive committee of the student union as I cannot handle both of them well at the same time; I chose to skip some of the lectures and studied in the library with my study partners; I chose to join many case competitions instead of participating in societies and sports teams. I realized one of the biggest differences between being a university student and a secondary school student is the difference in decision making. You need to make many decisions on your own and bear the responsibility in your university life. You have more freedom on making the decision. You gain and lose at the same time when the choice is made, just like the economic trade-off you learned in economics lesson. But we need to be brave to make decisions and not to be afraid of making the wrong decision, as we still learn even when we made mistakes. So be brave to choose your JUPAS choice.

This is only the first semester of my university life, and I already experienced and learned a lot. Life is always full of amazement and surprise. I am looking forward to the coming semester and coming year, as only hardship and new challenges can make me stronger and better.

The 10th Consecutive Championship

at the All Hong Kong Secondary School Softball Competition

The Boys' Softball Team of Secondary Division literally struck a home run on 19 December 2019 . For the tenth consecutive year, the team took the Championship at the All Hong Kong Secondary School Softball Competition 2019-20.

Getting ready for the big moment, our boys spent years, months, and up to the last few hours before the competition to prepare themselves with physical skills and strategies and positive mentality in order to triumph every game along the way. All their efforts paid off. The team pulled out all the stops and finally secured the crown for the tenth time after a tough battle against the long time rivalry Creative Secondary School. G9 NG Shun Hei was titled the Most Valuable Player for his outstanding performance throughout the competition.

Victory of a decade in the softball field wrote the history of A-School and the school sector. A vote of thanks for the enormous support from our wonderful teachers, parents and schoolmates who stood by the team that day. Without the spectacular cheering, the team might not able to come back from the draw and scored more runs to win the match. All of them did really demonstrate A-School's spirit of striving for excellence. The team will pass on the persevering and invincible spirit to their fellows and fortify a stronger team for future challenges. May this success lead to greater achievements in the years to come.

The 2nd HKBUAS Alumni Association has served A-School for almost a year since we were officially approved as the new executive committee. After our first event, the eSports Party, was successfully held, the Homecoming lunch was also very delightful. A big thanks to Dr. Ben Chan, Mr. Eric Lo, Ms Stephanie Ng, Parent-Teacher Association, teachers and alumni who came to our event and supported us. Apart from the delicious lunch, we were happy to see people enjoying our activity and taking photos at the delicate photo booth that we designed. We were also very honoured to see the PBL showcase on the same day after the Homecoming Lunch.

We are already planning other events which include a basketball game and some workshops. Also, we are designing some gifts for our alumni members, so stay tuned! We hope to see more alumni joining our upcoming events.

We, the 2nd HKBUAS Alumni Association Committee, will continue to provide more events and benefits for alumni in order to unite all alumni with our alma mater.

The Election Day for the Student Union and Chambers of the secondary school fell on October 4, 2019. Aristotle won the Cheerleading competition for the 2nd year in a row with their consistent performance in cheering over the two days and also the creative performance and teamwork showed in the final.

11th Aquatic Meet

Due to the unstable social conditions in recent months, the arrangement of this year took the balance between safety and participation, and required only the enrolled swimmers and chamber leaders to go and compete for the champion.

Despite the lack of supporters, there were still 200 swimmers who participated actively and swam to their best for their chambers. After a morning of exciting and entertaining competitions, Chamber Beethoven stopped the dominance of Da Vinci and crowned the Championship for the first time since the year 2010-2011.

牛，有刻苦耐勞之耐力；狗，有忠心耿耿之美譽；龍，有令人崇拜之魅力。豬，卻鮮有讚美之辭。

為此我深深不憤，為豬抱不平。在燒臘舖中掛着林林總總的燒味，叉燒、燒肉和金沙骨也是豬的貢獻。店舖中，無論地盤工人抑或白領，每人也專注於眼前切得大小不一，但亂中有序的燒臘飯。光澤鮮明的叉燒配上蔥油，一勺勺地往嘴裡送，似是把能量傳入身上。奇怪的是卻從來沒有讚美豬的句子出現。豬，好像只配當燒味；牛，卻永遠屬和牛等級。

最近總在想要為豬寫下一篇文章平反。夢裡牠曾出現……我站在這兒，牠站在那兒。依稀緊記我們之間沒有對話，我只看到一隻身形頗大而身上除了粉紅色外另添了一塊啡黑皮膚的豬，貪玩地在泥巴上滾來滾去。我還沒有趕及反應過來，夢大概就結束了。隨後，我翻遍了《周公解夢》，只留意到一句「見豬，主捷報頻傳。」才想起古人對豬的情意結，往往以豬為財富。「家」，家之所以為家，也是古人視飼養的畜生「豕」為財，豢養了幾頭豬便成家。可想而知，豬的地位在古時確實不可同日而語。

古時豬被視為家中寶物。同樣被視為至寶的還有玉。唐代皇宮的器皿更以玉製，事奉神也以玉作祭天供品，可見古人何其珍視。

近來機緣巧合下在網上看到一位老師慨嘆玉文化不流行了。女士們結婚都奢望另一半送上鑽石、黃金等等，又豈會喜歡另一半贈送玉呢！明代李時珍《本草綱目》提到：「產玉之處多矣，獨以闐玉為貴」。和闐玉即今稱和田玉，產地於古絲綢之路，其羊脂白玉亦深得古人喜愛，珍而重之。

豬和玉的命運似乎不盡相同，但兩者先盛後衰自是令人惋惜。古人視之為財富及懂得珍重的豬和玉文化雖不及古代，但有時候細心留意總會發現有些文化是根深蒂固埋在人心。

回想起農曆新年時家家戶戶總把「豬籠入水」、「發過豬頭」等祝福語掛在口邊，想必也是對豬的一種尊重吧。偶爾在街上某位伯伯的心口掛上紅繩的平安扣；孀孀左手佩戴翠綠的玉鐲；剛剛滿月的嬰兒手腳繫滿了長輩送上的玉器。

豬也許是幸運的一群，不用人們過份歌頌，也不需要小覷，便足矣！

In terms of the best six subjects, the highest number of points attained stands at 39. Three quarters students reached the general entry requirement for local undergraduate degree programmes, higher than the average percentage among all Hong Kong candidates of 37%.

The DSE class and GCE-AL class altogether obtained offers of degree programmes from many prestigious local and overseas universities, including University of Oxford, Imperial College London, University College London, University of Edinburgh, King's College London, UC Davis, SCAD (with scholarship), Waseda University, Peking University, HKU, CUHK, HKUST, to name but a few.
